About The Compound

Birmingham's industrial past meets its creative future at The Compound, our award-winning 10,000 sq ft space based on the edge of the historic Jewellery Quarter.

We've reimagined a former textile factory into a multi-functional creative haven; with soaring ceilings and multi-functional spaces that provide the perfect backdrop for any event. The Compound boasts three self-contained living spaces, an artist's studio, office, speakeasy bar, and a 25-seat cinema, teamed with triple-height gabled ceilings soaring to 35 metres and panels of skylights.

The attention to detail, as well as the high standard of décor, means that this venue attracts some of the leading players in the film, music, and media industries. We've hosted the likes of Ed Sheeran, Steven Spielberg, Warner Bros, Facebook, ZARA, and JLR... and now it's your turn.

Step into the extraordinary and hire The Compound for your meetings, events, celebrations, and shoots.
